TESTIMONY IN CITY - COUNTY
SUIT TAKEN

Circuit Judge T. Worth Thigard of Greenville will decide a civil suit brought by the Coffee County School Board against the City of Elba to collect $60,000 which the county board claims is due for school construction in this city.

The testimony was taken by Miss Gladys Clark, as Circuit Court reporter, and will be transcribed by a court reporter for submission to Judge Thigard. Judge Paul was disqualified because he was circuit solicitor in 1947 when bonds for school construction were issued.

The board claims the city had failed to live up to its contractual agreement to pay $80,000 representing the county board's share of revenue warrants for construction of a gymnasium and lunchroom at the Elba school in 1947.

Under the contract, it is claimed, the city was to have paid $800 monthly for 10 years until the debt was retired. But contends the county, the city halted payments after March, 1953, five and a half years after starting.

The city claims it cannot afford to make the payments and that the amount involved exceeds the city's constitutional debt limits.

One of the lesser known aspects of Dorsey expansion is the training of new employees in which Elmer Taylor, who is in charge of vocational training at Elba High School, is taking part. Pictured here are, left to right: Robert E. Mason, sales promotional manager; Lo. Petree, state bureau of apprenticeship supervisor, U. S. Dept. of Labor; Roy Baker, chief engineer research development; Elmer Brunson, plant manager; and Mr. Taylor.

Ridge Baptist Church with the Rev. William Snellgrove officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

OBITUARIES
BOUTWELL

Noah Washington Boutwell, 72, of Basin, died Feb. 3 in Methodist hospital, Opp, after a short illness. Mr. Boutwell was formerly employed at Dorsey Trailers until his retirement at the age of 54. He moved to Basin 29 years ago where he and his sons operated a farm for several years.

Mr. Boutwell was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Boutwell of Elba. He was married to Lily Flowers 45 years ago. He was a member of Basin Baptist Church. Besides the widow, he is survived by three children: Clifton and Leroy Boutwell of Route 4, Elba and Mrs. Roy Barlow of Route 4, Elba; 10 grandchildren and seven step- grandchildren, and one great granddaughter; two brothers, Cleveland Boutwell of Opp and Arthur Boutwell of Elba; two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Jackson of Elba and Mrs. Essie Revels of Brown.

Funeral was held from Basin Baptist Church conducted by the Rev. Hugh Zigler and the Rev. Roy Reeves. Burial was in Evergreen.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 10, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Meredith, a brother, Charles Edward Meredith, two sisters, Nancy and Kathleen, all of Portsmouth; grandparents of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Meredith of Enterprise, and Mrs. Leon Hall of Elba. Mr. and Mrs.

Ayn Rand Re-Discovered

Last week we asked: "Who is Ayn Rand?" Since then further research has revealed exactly what we expected to find: (1) Someone wholly lacking an American background; (2) Someone who writes in a philosophical vein; (3) Someone who knows one subject thoroughly and with a close mind to all other thought.

The details: (1) A woman with a czarist Russian background; (2) though her books are fiction, frankly admits in the introduction that "Atlas Shrugged" is a philosophical; (3) frankly admits she has studied only Aristotle and no other philosopher.

Aristotle, of course, was a great Greek philosopher but whose philosophy is wholly at variance with Plato, Hobbes and Emerson, yes, a philosopher of totalitarianism, as might be supposed from the fact that he was tutor to Alexander the Great, who conquered all the then known world and went because there were no more nations to conquer.

Yet Ayn Rand is the author who furnished a quotation which began a column by Holmes Alexander in the Dothan Eagle which continued to eulogize the late Senator McCarthy, the most totalitarian minded man yet to sit in the U. S. Senate, after an earlier similar eulogy of Western Europe's present exponent of totalitarianism, Dictator Charles de Gaulle.

Now, as an epilogue, the case of Ayn Rand reveals how wholly inadequate are the American immigration and naturalization laws. America wants and needs immigrants whose way of life is akin to our own. By way of comparison: Joseph Conrad, who emigrated to England from Poland, and Ralph Waldo Emerson, who emigrated to England from Italy, became better Englishmen than most native born Englishmen. Which illustrates how carefully England sifts her immigrants.

Our country, on the other hand, has permitted such indiscriminate immigration that already election forecasts take into consideration how certain immigrant groups will vote. Unless something is done the face of America will be changed in another generation.

Honorary Commander of Auburn Rifles

Miss Susan Murphree (above), freshman at Auburn University from Elba, has been named the first honorary commander in the history of the Auburn Rifles, Army ROTC unit. She will serve throughout the Spring quarter. This is the latest of many honors to come to Susan at Auburn. She has also been named sweetheart of K division of Magnolia Hall dormitories for men. She is one of 22 sweethearts from among whom the title of Miss Magnolia Hall will be conferred next Spring.

4-H NEWS Round-up

BY TOM CASADAY • ASSISTANT COUNTY AGENT

Assistant Home Agents, Jean Wacker and I, were well pleased with only the Junior and Senior citizens at their club meeting in Goshua. It's always heartening to see boys and girls working to do a real good job.

The presidents, Terry Thompson and Sylvia Wallace, were especially good along with the secretaries, song leaders, Vice presidents, and a n-d devotional leaders. Local leaders are Mrs. Lillian, Mrs. Johnson, and H. L. Lockard.

Paul Davidson, of the Alabama Power Company, giving our program this month, knows a lot of people. Seems like he went to school with a lot of our teachers here in the county. No matter how far Paul gets away from Enterprise, he still meets a lot of good friends.

We use a lot of corn in Coffee county. We need to be using a lot more. But in order to use it, we need to grow a lot more corn than we do.

With plenty of corn, Coffee county can get on an expanded cattle, hog, and poultry production program.

Tractor Safety
Do you let small children or brothers and sisters ride on your tractor with you? Folks who had small children on tractors with them are making a serious mistake. One of the worst tractor accidents I have ever seen occurred several years ago when a four year old boy fell from a tractor while riding with his dad. A tractor seat is made for one person.

National 4-H Club Week
March 5-12 is National 4-H Club Week all over America. Over 2 and a half million 4-H Club boys and girls will observe this week through special programs and other activities.

GETS BASIC DRILLS
Pvt. Jerry D. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hillary Clifton Jackson, Rt. 2, Twp. 9, is presently assigned to Co. 2, 7th Battalion, 2nd Training Regt. of the U. S. Army Training Center, Infantry, at Fort Jackson, S. C., where he is undergoing eight weeks of Basic Combat Training.

DOMESTIC WORKER DIES
Mrs. Catherine Haynes Thrasher, 38, colored, of Elba, died Saturday, Feb. 6, in Mizzell hospital, Opa, following an operation for leg amputation the day previous. She was a domestic worker and well known. She is survived by her husband and no children.

Funeral was held Sunday, Feb. 14, from the Triumph Christ of Christ in Elba.

Surprise Shower Is Given For Miss Canley

A surprise linen and lingerie shower that was really a surprise was given for Miss Nancy Canley Tuesday morning last week, by Mrs. Kimmie Dorsey and Mrs. George Lamm. Collier at the home of the former.

The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers and ribbons interspersed with net and ribbons on miniatures of the wedding cake. Vases of white flowers of Spring created an accent note on the organ. This color scheme was carried through to the pink and white ribbon sandwiches served later.

Some sixty-five friends were waiting to say "Surprise!" to Nancy when she entered the living room.

Mrs. Rosecoe Deal Entertains For Miss Canley

On last Saturday afternoon a large group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Rosecoe Deal who was entertaining Miss Nancy Canley. Mrs. Levy Morrow was co-hostess.

The living room was beautifully decorated with pink on the mantel a crystal bowl held pink roses and at the ends of the mantel were pink candles tied with pink and white ribbons burning in crystal candleholders. Bowls of pink camellias were used in abundance but the piece - de - resistance was on the coffee table. Here a bride's bouquet, fashioned of pink perfection satin, ribbon, Lily of the Valley, and tulips caught every eye.

The dining room table was covered in a white satin and net skirt and centered with a graceful green epergne holding white camellias and surrounded by green and white grapes.

The buffet held pink pencil tapers set in white net and encircled in pink roses.

The guests enjoyed dainty party refreshments and watching the bride open the many useful kitchen gadgets presented to her. Nancy wore a jeweled white sweater, black velvet skirt and matching bandeau.

CHIROPRACTOR BEAUTY WILL BE SELECTED

Beauty contests usually call for good looks and a good figure, but beauty must be more than skin deep to capture the title of Queen in the contest sponsored by the National and International Chiropractic Association, announced Dr. William E. Yoham, practicing chiropractor in Elba.

Dr. Yoham, who is a contest director for the Elba area, said that any single girl, age 17 through 22 is eligible. The winner will step up the rung on the ladder to attain the title of Posture Queen by participating in the Southeast Contest at Dothan. The winner of the regional contest in Dothan will compete with other regional winners at Mobile, Ala. The winner of the state contest will vie for the national title in St. Louis.

The Elba area contest winner, said Dr. Yoham will receive a trophy and an expense paid trip to Mobile if she wins the regional contest in Dothan. Should she also win in Mobile, she will receive another trophy and an expense paid trip to St. Louis.

In addition to a $1,000 scholarship and $1,000 in cash, the Posture Queen will travel to Chiropractic Conventions during her reign throughout the U. S. Canada, and foreign countries.

The Elba area contest is scheduled for March 12. Single girls 17 through 22 years of age who wish to compete may receive full details from Dr. Yoham in Elba or telephone TW-7-2223.

Three damage suits resulting from an accident on the Canal Bridge, Opp highway, Jan. 5, 1959 were dismissed by Judge Simmons for lack of prosecution. Four Elba boys were killed in the crash.

COFFEE VOTE FAVORS ALL AMENDMENTS

All proposed amendments to the state Constitution were favored by voters of Coffee County Tuesday, last week, with the greatest interest being shown in the first amendment to provide greater facilities for treatment of the mentally ill, the official canvass showed.

This was at variance with the vote on the entire state because after all the votes were counted it was found that six of the amendments were rejected. Trailing far behind state-wide was an industrial development plan for rural Franklin county and proposals to put elected officials on a salary in Butler, Elmore, Russell, St. Clair and Shelby counties. The Franklin county amendment was No. 8, Russell county was No. 16, St. Clair No. 17, and Shelby No. 18.

The Coffee county vote for mental hospital improvement was 1,399 yes and 35 no, while the vote on amendment No. 2 to require a vote of the people before any county's road system may be transferred to the state road department, was 1,148 yes and 148 no.

There was only scattered interest in the other 17 amendments where little more than 300 people voted on either, though all were favored by a decided majority of two to one and six to one, in this county.

With District Tournament only a few short days away, end-of-the-season jitters have struck the Elba Tigers, and their camp efforts have become unpredictable.

For example, they whipped Troy, the conference leaders, in Troy last Friday night by a devastating 62 to 48 score.
